Auction

The so-called auction book in the front section informs in detail about current important auctions in Germany and abroad. This also includes a preview and a review. Here, art collectors can find out everything they need to know about specific collection areas. The auction dates provide a chronological overview of the most important auction dates.

Pricing

The readers of KUNST UND AUKTIONEN buy art at auctions. "Pricing" provides them with an overview of their collection for a whole year, including hammer price, limit and estimate.

/ Range of topics

Scope

In the 'Scope' section, readers are provided with useful background information, reviews, and opinions on art acquisition.

Analyses and previews of fairs and exhibitions complement the auction reports.

The issue concludes with 'Art on the Web' and 'The Find of My Life.'

/ Inserts

You can place inserts, i.e. loosely enclosed printed matter.

Formats:

Minimum format 95 mm x 145 mm

Maximum format 220 mm x 320 mm

Larger formats can be used if they are delivered folded to the maximum format.

Multi-page brochures must always have the fold on the long side.

Paper Weight:

Single sheets A6 -> Paper weight at least 170 g/m².

Larger than A6 -> Paper weight at least 120 g/m².

Maximum weight up to 100 g.

Brochures over 100 g (if machine-processable) must be individually requested in advance from the brochure dispatch department.

Technical Notes: Inserts are machine-inserted into the magazine and must therefore meet specific requirements. Multi-page inserts must always lie with the closed side parallel to the magazine spine. Accordion-folded inserts or inserts with stapled postcards cannot be processed. If inserts contain an attached postcard, it must be glued with a strip adhesive parallel to the closed edge of the insert.
